Project

Event Date Thurs., 2/19/2009

Description:

This event will allow speakers who are currently pursuing careers in one of the five areas outlined below to share their perspectives on their jobs as well as provide insights into their own educational and intellectual journeys that have brought them to where they currently are.

Speakers will be presenting to classes focused on the SLC subjects and there will be a presentation and Q&A session for each class. The time commitment at minimum is to speak to one class but can also be longer to include several class sessions. The earliest one being at 8 am.

Through this interaction, motivation and encouragement for the students will be provided and our longer term vision is to establish deeper relationships that can lead to internships or other types of exposure for the students in this community of Lincoln Heights.
