Event Date Saturday, February 14, 2009

Description:

Desire to serve a Muslim community or friend, but feel helpless not knowing where to begin? Come and learn and experience Islamic community first hands, thus you will be better equipped to serve them. Led by a group of people with years of collective experience in working with Muslims, the Islam exploration seminar will deal with our own perceptions (or misperceptions), cultural assumptions, relational issues (in how we relate with a Muslim here at our work place, school, and neighborhood). The day will include movies, case studies, halal lunch, outing to Islamic communities, with presentation and discussions. Don't miss out this excellent opportunity to learn and bless an Islamic community. The day will conclude with a time of prayer – one of the most tangible ways of serving the Muslim community.
